Now there, Mr. Maus,

I am reproducing the comment that you made in your new thread, even though I really shouldn't help you out here, content as you are to demonstrate your less than logical, or ethical, reasoning abilities:

"Well, I just heard back from Professor Hanley and this is what he had to say:

Question

I have no idea how you got my name nor do I wish to comment on these photos. Do not continue to use my name in this fashion.

Don Hanley
WSU Extension Forester

So, there you have it. Yet another person quoted by Michael Horn as being someone who supports the claims of Billy Meier and then it turns out that he has been misquoted or never spoken to."

Er, where in his recent quote does he say what you claim he means, i.e. that he does or doesn't "support the claims of Billy Meier" or that he has been misquoted or never spoken to"? Please, do point that out.

Has it crossed your small mind that the man is simply stating...exactly what he's stating? Did you ask him if the trees were models or real? Did you send him the photographs, etc.?

Oh yeah, does ATS really allow you to post other people's emails...or only if it serves their agenda?

Boy, wait till everyone finds out that you think all UFO people are nuts!
