Hi there Maus,

Say, why not be a good boy and insist on posting my recent responses on the ATS thread where, right now, you've left these geniuses thinking that you scored some points here? To be specific, they would be my responses showing that UC still basically isn't endorsing the the hoax premise and the nice, encouraging words from the GC at UC, hardly a legal threat.

It really would be the right thing to do and, since I'm sure you don't want this lack of integrity to become an additional issue for you (and yet another albatross around the collective neck of CFI-WEst/IIG) I suggest doing it...certainly before I simply create an account there and do it myself.

After all, you are looking for the TRUTH and not just trying to prove the Meier case wrong...aren't you? That isn't exactly the ...scientific approach, as I'm sure you'll be the first to admit.
