Howdy there, you big international celebrities! Did I keep my word or what?

Yessiree, y'all are definitely becoming even more faMaus than I expectorated, with your names and the sad story of your plight now capturing the rapt attention of people on virtually every land mass.

Enclosed are screen capture shots of google maps showing where the press release has already been viewed. Some places didn't show up on these below, like Japan. And we're just a couple of days into this effort.

Well, don't look now but I sense a whole lot more opportunities for magic shows and psychic busting comin' your way.

Let's not talk about payment for the promo now, just enjoy your new found popularity, or notoriety, or...whatever.

And hey, keep the Waggster away from this stuff, will ya? He gets kinda bent outta shape and we don't want that now, do we?

Mike

Salome,

Michael
